

NEW FUNDING SEEKS FEMINIST ACTIVISTS AND SURVIVOR-LEADERS

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BEING PART OF A PANEL THAT INFLUENCES FUNDING DECISIONS TO TACKLE SGBV IN SIERRA LEONE?

Purposeful, in partnership with FCDO, presents MOVE, a new participatory grantmaking programme putting a diverse group of female survivor-leaders and feminist activists at the centre of programming and decision-making to tackle sexual and gender-based violence (SGBV) in Sierra Leone. MOVE is focused entirely on providing flexible small grants with accompanying support, convening and coalition building to strengthen efforts to tackle SGBV, and finance a vision for a new world where Sierra Leonean women and girls are living in safety, dignity and freedom.

A panel of nine young women and girls from all over Sierra Leone will make the decisions at the heart of the programme, and journey together as part of an amazing team making change in communities across the country.

COULD THIS BE YOU?

- Aged 19–35 years old, passionate about addressing SGBV issues and making change in your community
- A survivor-leader or feminist activist connected to an organisation or programme, working with and for diverse groups of survivors.
- Interested in new models of decision-making and grantmaking
- Available two days a month to join meetings/calls
- Available to travel across Sierra Leone during the process

Survivor-leaders and feminist activists from all backgrounds – whether you are out of school, a young mother, have a disability, or live in a rural community – you are welcome to apply. We will give you all the training needed!
